

RICHARD ALBARRAN

DIRECTOR

About Richard

A Partner in the Business Recovery and Insolvency services section, Richard Albarran is acknowledged for his impressive ability to formulate the best possible solution for individuals and companies in financial difficulties.

With over 20 years experience in insolvency, Richard is renowned for his depth of knowledge and expertise in his field. Richard is a specialist adviser in turnaround, commercial advice, and corporate and personal insolvency.

He takes pride in his work and his ambition and dedication is reflected in his exceptionally successful track record. After becoming a Director of Hall Chadwick in February 1999, Richard took on the task of developing and managing the Penrith division of the practice. His significant success in this role contributed to his promotion to Associate in July 1999 and then to Partner on the 1st January 2000.

Richard's Approach

Richard's energy and expertise has enabled many clients to resolve financial problems and to once again trade profitably, when there had appeared to be little or no hope. "I am passionate about seeing my clients do well and I strive to meet, and exceed their expectations.

Our firm's ability to match any competition in the Insolvency profession has resulted in the success of the Hall Chadwick name. I am proud to be a part of that." Hall Chadwick is confident that we will validate any clients decision to proceed with us based on Richard's pro-active and well regarded service.

Richard spends his time between the Melbourne and Sydney offices.
