

TONY NATOLI

DIRECTOR

Valuations and Forensic Accounting

About Tony

Tony is Director with Hall Chadwick Forensics, specialising in valuation and forensic accounting services.

Over his 30 year career as a Chartered Accountant, Tony has accumulated extensive expertise in:

- Valuations of businesses and equity interests
- Dispute advisory services (Shareholders, partnerships, unitholders)
- Assessment of consequential loss claims
- Due diligence, investigations and litigation support.

He has been engaged as a single expert witness, shadow expert and consultant in a range of litigation matters. Preparation of critiques of other expert reports is a significant part of his practice.

Tony has experience in a wide range of industries and businesses extending to:

- Valuing equity interests in disputes (oppression claims and stakeholder disputes) including shares, businesses, companies, trusts and partnerships
- Valuation of business interests in family law proceedings
- Independent assessment of economic loss resulting from compulsory acquisition of property
- Independent expert opinion on consequential loss and damages claims
- Valuation of intellectual property and associated trademarks for acquisition purposes
- Valuations in ATO disputes including eligibility for small business concessions and restructuring
- Appeared as expert witness in Supreme Court, Federal Circuit Court and before the Victorian Commission for Gambling Regulation.

Tony holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Melbourne and CA Business Valuation Specialist. He is a member of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.
