

NEWS RELEASE

Hall Chadwick reaches to Auckland New Zealand

January 1, 2022

Leading mid-tier firm accounting and advisory firm Hall Chadwick adds a tenth office with a move into the New Zealand professional services market in Auckland, New Zealand

We are very pleased to announce our expansion into New Zealand and we warmly welcome Tadius Munapeyi to the Hall Chadwick Association.

Tadius will head the practice in Auckland. His deep technical experience in financial statements audits, NZIFRS implementation, internal audit, IT Audit, AML Audit and Consulting has seen him develop strong relationships with clients in the Banking, Insurance, Funds Management, Manufacturing, Telecoms and Not for Profits sectors in New Zealand.

Tadius has been engaged on a number of large multi-national co-sourcing engagements and has worked collaboratively with offshore teams. He says "In this constantly evolving global economy and the AsPac region in particular, being able to have a seamless continuum of services for clients with operations in both New Zealand and Australia is not only a necessity, it's my priority."

David Lissauer, Chairman of the Hall Chadwick Association says, "The move into the New Zealand market was highly considered. Great opportunities await us and with his impressive career spanning more than twenty years in combined with an extensive array of connections, Tadius is the exact leader we need."
