

EMILY BEW

Manager, Valuation & Forensic

About Emily

Emily joined the team in 2019 with over four years of experience at a specialist forensic accounting and business valuation firm in Adelaide.

Emily is a qualified Chartered Accountant who has worked on a number of large and complex litigations in various jurisdictions and courts around Australia. She has experience in commercial disputes, shareholder oppression actions and commercial transactions across a broad range of industries. Emily has worked on matters for entities of all sizes and structures, including ASX-listed and foreign entities.

Emily has highly developed skills in data analytics and financial modelling, and is able to effectively and efficiently convert large volumes of complex data into easily understandable information tailored to her clients' needs.

Emily holds a Master of Accounting and Marketing from the University of Adelaide and a Bachelor of Arts (Asian Studies and Japanese) from the University of Adelaide and Osaka University.
