

JOSHUA HO

Manager, Valuation & Forensic

About Joshua

Joshua Ho is a chartered accountant and member of Hall Chadwick Forensics. He joined the team in early 2015 having over six years experience as a corporate insolvency specialist and a desire to extend his specialist skills to forensic accounting and business valuations in commercial disputes and family law matters.

Since joining the team, Joshua has been involved in many litigation and family law matters which require extensive forensic investigations and complex valuation analysis.

Joshua started his career with an insolvency firm and over six years he worked on matters relating to the sale of businesses, voidable transactions claims, fraud investigation and litigation against various related parties and officers of a managed investment scheme. Joshua's expertise extends to banking and corporate sectors.

Joshua holds a Bachelor of Commerce from Deakin University majoring in Accounting and Finance and Graduate Diploma of Chartered Accounting (CA).

He is a member of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.
